

HERE I AM:
Find Me and You Will Get $50 in Gold

I AM THE MAN WITH THE GREAT MYSTIC KEY
I am 6 feet 2 inches tall. I weigh 155 pounds. I am 29 years old. I have blue eyes. I have a small mustache. My hair is dark brown tinged slightly with gray. Today I am wearing a brown suit and a derby hat. If I am not caught on Summer street, near the office of the BOSTON AMERICAN before 1 o'clock, I shall wait on Washington street between 1 and 2 p. m. I shall be somewhere between Summer and State streets, on Washington.

If I am not caught then, I shall have a better picture printed, showing some of my face. This picture will appear in the 8 p. m. Final Edition of the BOSTON AMERICAN.
If I have not been caught before 4:45 p. m., I shall go to the South Terminal Station, where you will surely be able to find me with the aid of this picture. I shall do my best to get caught every day.
If you do not catch me today, perhaps you can catch me to-morrow. A better picture, showing still more of my face, will be printed in to-morrow's Night Edition.
Watch for the paper with the Mystic Key in the upper right-hand corner.

THE MYSTIC KEY story is on page 5. Clues to the whereabouts of fifteen hidden keys are contained in to-day's chapter. The finders of these keys will receive $150 in gold.
The person who finds the GREAT mystic key that is carried by the man who is shown above will receive $50.
Those who find the other keys will receive in total $100.
It will be easier to find the hidden keys than to find THE MAN WITH THE MYSTIC KEY.
All depends on YOUR SKILL IN READING THE CLEWS.
See full details on page 5.

GILMORE, ALLEGED BUSHEE

Young Man Accused by Companions in Somerville Tragedy Sought by the Police of All New England—Two Held Without Bail.

Charged with the murder of Druggist Charles E. Bushee on the night of January 12, pleading not guilty and waiving examination, Oscar L. Kelson, twenty-three, of Somerville, and John J. Killion, twenty-two, formerly of East Boston, are safely locked up in the Middlesex County Jail at East Cambridge, without bail, pending the March sitting of the Grand Jury at Lowell.

Meanwhile the police of all New England are scouring the country for George L. Gilmore of No. 21 Dorr street, Roxbury, the son of an industrious and respected carpenter. By Kelson's confession, substantiated by Killion and published by the BOSTON AMERICAN to-day, he is implicated as the man who beat the aged druggist to death.

DASHES INTO FIRE TO SAVE SICK CHILDREN

THRILLING RESCUES MADE TO DAY AT BLAZE IN DORCHESTER TENEMENT.

Brave men of the fire department, on the street floor adjoining Leavenworth street, last night, saved the lives of two sick children, who were trapped in a tenement which had caught fire. The fire broke out in the tenement at about 10 o'clock, and the firemen rushed to the scene. They found the children in a room which was filled with smoke and fire. One child was lying on the floor, and the other was sitting up in bed. The firemen rushed to the children and carried them out of the building. They were taken to the hospital, where they are now recovering from their injuries.

WORK WITH FATHER.

Young man, who was charged with the murder of Druggist Charles E. Bushee, is now working with his father, George L. Gilmore, at his carpenter shop. He is doing well, and is expected to be released from the jail soon.

POLICE SEARCH HOME.

The police searched the home of George L. Gilmore, the father of the young man charged with the murder of Druggist Charles E. Bushee, last night. They found no evidence of the crime.

BOTH PLEAD "NOT GUILTY."

Both Oscar L. Kelson and John J. Killion pleaded "not guilty" to the charge of murdering Druggist Charles E. Bushee.

SHOTS WOMAN DEAD IN STREET CAR ROW

A woman was shot and killed in a street car row last night. The shooter is now being sought by the police.

KELSON SILENT AND SHIFTY.

Oscar L. Kelson is silent and shifty, and is not talking to anyone. He is being watched by the police.

MAKE MOVE TO QUASH COLLEGE'S INDICTMENT

The Boston American is making a move to quash the indictment against the college. The college is claiming that the indictment is unjust and that it should be thrown out.

The police are still searching for George L. Gilmore. They have not yet found him.

Boys Choose Company Captains.

I am hearing from a number of boys who assume that they have been chosen captains of walking companies, organized by schools or by districts, and that they will report next Saturday with full ranks. That is the right way to do it. If we can have at the head of the several companies who will walk with them, those in the rear will not get into the habit of walking, and the whole thing will be a failure.

A Boarder in a Private Family

Every young man and young woman fighting to get on top in this great city knows what it means to be a boarder in a private family. The meals are better than those of the cheap lunch counters and restaurants—the association of refined and home loving people cannot but have its effect in forming character. The maternal interest that the good woman at the head of the family gives to her boarders is such a help to the mental growth of struggling young people.
